MEXICO MUST LET JENKINS GO FREE OR FACE TROUBLE

U. S. Consular is ill in a Mexican Prison and Life is in Peril

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—State department officials in discussing the Mexican situation today disclosed that three years ago the army general staff estimated that an army of 150,000 men and three years would be required for complete intervention in Mexico by the United States.

Officials did not say what the present estimate of the general staff was but it was understood to be less than that prepared before the world war, due to the development of new instruments of warfare and an enormous increase in American war materials of all kinds, particularly motorized transports, airplanes and artillery.

Discussing the case of William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, who was re-arrested last Tuesday on charges in connection with his abduction by bandits, officials said because of the Mexican government's laxity in trying to put down the revolution it had failed to give proper protection to Jenkins and that consequently he might have ground for claim against the Mexican government for the ransom money paid to his captors.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Officials here today were watching Mexico for action on the note despatched by the state department to the Mexican government demanding the release of William O. Jenkins, United States consular agent at Puebla, who was re-arrested on charges of being in a conspiracy with his bandit captors who "forced" him to pay $150,000 gold for release.

The note warned that further molestation of the consular agent would "seriously affect the relations between the United States and Mexico for which the government of Mexico must assume sole responsibility."

The note was sent immediately after official confirmation of Jenkins' re-arrest had been received and said the United States government was "surprised and incensed" on learning of the consular agent's re-imprisonment which was characterized as "absolutely arbitrary and unwarranted."

Refusal Means Trouble
The note expresses the view, based on information in possession of the department of state, that his re-arrest is absolutely arbitrary and unwarranted, and warns the Mexican government that further molestation of the consular agent will seriously affect the relations between the United States and Mexico, for which the government of Mexico must assume sole responsibility.

Jenkins was first arrested early this month, on the charge of collusion with the bandits who took him from his home at Puebla on October 19, but he was released after remaining in the penitentiary two hours.

He was restricted to his home, however, and Tuesday was re-arrested on complaint that he had threatened persons who had given evidence on which the state authorities acted in first taking him into custody.

Jenkins III; Jail Perils Life
So far as the department has been advised, he still is held in custody, and because of his weakened physical condition, resulting from the hardships endured during the week the bandits held him in the mountains of Puebla, state officials feared long imprisonment might permanently affect his health.

Before his arrest Jenkins, who operates a large cotton mill at Puebla, had planned to return to his old home in Tennessee, and if necessary come to Washington to present his claim to officials for assistance in paying off the obligations contracted in raising the fund paid the bandits for his release.

WILSON TO DEAL WITH PACT IN NEXT MESSAGE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—President Wilson will take up the whole subject of the treaty of Versailles in his message to congress December 1, it was stated officially today at the White House. Until then he will have nothing to say concerning the senate's action in rejecting the treaty.

Discussion here today of the peace treaty concerned chiefly the probable effect the non-ratification of the pact by the senate would have on the commercial and financial business of the United States with Europe. Technically, as has been pointed out, the United States still is a state of war with the central powers and it is feared that complications may arise which would tend to retard international commerce.

The White House is being watched closely for developments but so far silence has reigned there and those who had hoped for a formal declaration of peace by a presidential proclamation have had their attention directed to the statement of President Wilson last August in reply to a question by Senator Fall in which the president said:

"I feel constrained to say in reply to your first question not only that in my judgment I have not the power by proclamation to declare that peace exists, but that I could in no circumstances consent to take such a course prior to the ratification of a formal treaty of peace."

OPERATORS SERVE ULTIMATUM UPON UNION COAL MINERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Bituminous coal mine operators served what was practically an ultimatum on the coal miners' representatives here today, telling them that the offer yesterday of 15 cents a ton and 20 per cent day wage increases was the utmost that could be given. The miners went into a conference immediately to consider the offer.

Acting President John L. Lewis of the mine workers' organization, who spent a part of the morning closeted with Secretary of Labor Wilson, presided at the miners' session. It was said the joint conference of the operators and miners would be resumed this afternoon at which time the miners would present their answer. There was considerable doubt whether the proposal would be accepted.

Before entering the joint conference today, Lewis reiterated that the operator's offer was inadequate and unacceptable. He indicated, however, that it would be given further consideration by the miners if it could be enlarged to cover details of working conditions and allowances for dead work for the miners. The operators, however, left the proposal in its original form.

Outlying operators who have been following the negotiations confidentially predicted that the agreement in the central field, if reached, would serve as a basis for wage scale contracts affecting them. F. W. Lukins, president of the Interstate Coal Operators' Association, their spokesman, said the central field offer was a very liberal one and expressed hope for its acceptance.

Calculations as to the price of coal made on the basis of the operators' offer indicated, it was said, that consuming public would be asked to pay in case of its acceptance about $200,000,000 per annum additional for its cost.

Allied Council Will Proceed To Act on Treaty

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
PARIS, Nov. 21.—The supreme council today agreed upon December 1, as the date when the German peace treaty will be formally ratified.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The inability of the United States representatives at Paris to deposit President Wilson's ratification of the German treaty at the same time those of other powers are filed, will not prevent the remaining allied and associated powers from proceeding to carry the treaty into effect," said Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the house of commons today, in answer to numerous questions in regard to the status of the American senate's action.

In answer to a question from Sir Donald Maclean, Mr. Bonar Law said:

"Without doubt there will be no slackening in the denunciation of Great Britain to do all in her power to take the lead in seeing that the league of nations becomes an effective instrument of human progress. I think it would be a mistake to assume that all possibility of help from the United States is gone."

FINAL PLEA ON WAR TIME DRY ACT IS HEARD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Final argument on the constitutionality of the war-time prohibition act was heard before the supreme court today. No decision from the court is expected, however, until it reconvenes on December 8, after a recess beginning Monday.

Nine black robed justices then will decide whether the estate of the late Jonathan "Barr-Lee-Corn," comprising 117,000,000 gallons of liquor, more or less, shall be distributed among his heirs, successors and assigns before January 16 next, when national prohibition by constitutional amendment becomes effective.

The only hope for a "wet Christmas" and a ditto New Year lies in the dignified judicial body, which is the court of last resort. Some of the questions asked by the jurists today, gave advocates of an "old-fashioned" Yuletide a ray of hope, while the questions of others indicated there would be no answer to the old song, "How Dry I Am."

Big Legal Talent
Arrayed against each other on the issue of whether war-time prohibition is unconstitutional were some of the best-known, highest paid legal talent of the United States. Elihu Root, former secretary of state, former secretary of war, chairman of the American mission to Russia during the war and internationally famous lawyer, argued that the law making the nation dry at this time is unconstitutional.

William L. Frierson, assistant attorney general of the United States, made an argument diametrically opposite, and although A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general, was not present to argue the case for his department, his opinion recently rendered showed that his view is in direct disagreement with Mr. Root.

Wheeler Is Eloquent
Levy Mayer and William Marshall Bullitt, two noted liquor lawyers, supported Mr. Root in his arguments, while officials of the department of justice sided in the presentation of the government side.

During the hearing Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League of America, who introduced a brief in defense of war-time prohibition at the opening of the session, sat beside Mr. Root, chief counsel for the wets.

REGISTERED MAIL STOLEN
DUNKIRK, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Liberty bonds said to be worth $97,000 have been stolen from a registered mail pouch in transit, it became known today. The bonds were shipped by Titusville and Warren banks. The pouch was found this morning behind a bill board near the station.

DISORDERS CEASE
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 21.—Minor disorders which have accompanied the steel strike here for the past three weeks have ceased almost entirely, police reported today. Only one arrest has been made in the last 48 hours, that of an East Youngstown striker charged with carrying concealed weapons.

MAY SEIZE MINES IN A FEW HOURS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—In continuing their endeavor to draw a wage contract that will get coal miners in the central competitive fields back to work, operators and miners had before them today the offer of the operators to give the men a 15-cent a ton increase for piece work in the mines and 20 per cent additional in wages to day workers. The offer was made as a compromise of the miners' demands for 30 hour week and a 60 per cent increase in compensation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 21.—Intervention by the government to force the production of bituminous coal in the United States is only a matter of hours, unless the operators and miners of the central competitive field, who remained deadlocked tonight in their negotiations to end the strike, can settle their differences.

This was learned authoritatively after the operators had submitted a compromise offer to the miners, which the latter rejected as inadequate, and which John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers, said "is ridiculous."

Government officials in touch with the stalemate declared that the refusal of the miners to return to work was rapidly producing a serious situation and that the government is prepared to force the operation of the mines within a short time, unless the coal strike is settled.

United States May Act Swiftly
"Is it a matter of days until the government must act?" was asked. "It may be a matter of hours," was the reply.

The government, it was explained, hopes that it will not have to conduct this battle for industrial preservation of the country, but it proposes to do it.

The country must have coal. This is the government's position tonight and the operators and miners in session here have been told so.

Just what the government intends to do has not been disclosed, but the general conjecture here is that it will take over the mines and dig coal under military guard, if necessary.

Operators' Offer to Men
This precarious situation existed after the operators of the central competitive field had proposed an increase of 15 cents a ton to piece miners, and an increase of a dollar a day to day miners, or about 20 per cent, with no reduction in the hours of work.

That proposal Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the operators' scale committee, said is the largest increase in mining wages ever offered in the history of the country, exceeding the increase given in 1917, by five cents a ton.

"We have gone as far as we can go," said Mr. Brewster, "and the miners say our offer is inadequate."

"The compromise offer which the operators submitted to us is not only inadequate, it is ridiculous," Mr. Lewis said. "We cannot believe that they made the offer in good faith."

Won't Even Consider Offer
"We refuse to dignify it by even considering it. The increase proposed does not even approach the necessity in the case; and, on top of all that, the operators do not even mention shortening of hours."

"Why, in our last conference here before the strike, Secretary of Labor Wilson offered us an eight-hour bank-to-bank day, which means a seven-hour work day, and we certainly will consider nothing less than that."

"What is to come of the conference," Mr. Lewis was asked. "What hope is there for tomorrow?"

"I don't know," he replied, "but we are not going to accept the operators' proposal and the miners are not going back to work. In addition to the ridiculous increase offered us, the operators have also notified us that they will increase the cost of powder and other supplies which the miners must buy from the operators. Their attitude is absolutely preposterous."

Bandit Carlisle Still Has R. R. Men on Alert

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 21.—William L. "Bill" Carlisle, notorious bandit, continued today a source of uneasiness to officials of the Union Pacific railroad.

There was no lessening of preparations to prevent repetition of the robbery of last Tuesday night when Carlisle entered a tourist car on the Los Angeles limited, relieved passengers of $250 and disappeared. Guards are maintained on every train and equipment for sending a special train load of armed men in pursuit is kept ready in the yards so they can be under way with ten minutes notice of any new depredation by the outlaw.

Railroad officials are confident that Carlisle will attempt to rob another train within a short time for the purpose of demonstrating that he is able to outwit all guards and posses. He is known to be a lover of spectacular and is said to care little for money.

Detroit Legion Warns Haywood Not to Speak

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 21.—Taking official cognizance of reports that the American Legion will undertake to prevent William D. Haywood from speaking at a mass meeting here Sunday, November 30, Mayor James Couzens today announced police protection will be given Haywood if necessary to enable him to deliver his address.

The mayor's statement was met by the assertion from David C. Jones, adjutant of Charles Leonard Post, which comprises 6,000 members of the legion that "regardless of what Mayor Couzens does, Haywood will not speak in Detroit."

A statement authorized at state headquarters here of the legion said:

"If Mayor Couzens and the police department do not intend to prevent Haywood from speaking here, the American Legion will."

Representatives of the legion also stated that efforts will be made to prevent Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman from addressing a meeting here November 23.

FORMER SOLDIER ENDS LIFE
AKRON, O., Nov. 21.—McKinsley Duff, 28, of Bond, Ky., a first lieutenant in the United States army and a fortnight ago the victim of Akron's boldest daylight holdup, committed suicide in a room in the Buchtel hotel last night by drinking poison. Discouragement over financial losses is believed to have prompted the army man's act.

FEDERAL COURT TAKES A HAND IN TOLEDO MUSS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
TOLEDO, O., Nov. 21.—The question of immediate restoration of street railway service in Toledo through an order from the United States district court hinges upon the interpretation Judge John M. Kilbitt places on the scope of the Miller public utility abandonment law passed by the Ohio legislature last April.

Judge Kilbitt has commanded city officials and officers of the Toledo Railways and Light to appear in his court at 1:30 p. m., today to disclose why the public utilities commission was not notified of the discontinuance of street car service here two weeks ago tomorrow night.

If the court rules that the commission has jurisdiction over street railways it is said resumption of service may be ordered at once. It is understood the court will hold that order here of about 15 interurban railroads now barred from the streets through the order ordinance passed on November 1, gives the commission power to act.

Mayor Schreiber who drafted the order and Frank R. Coates, president of the railway company in charge of local street car affairs when Henry L. Doherty of New York is not here, made preparations this morning to appear before Judge Kilbitt in answer to the summons.

District court entered the traction case yesterday when the law was discovered and presented to Judge Kilbitt, who took immediate action by issuing the summons.

The conference between Mayor Schreiber and Judge Dewey C. Bailey, Mr. Doherty's personal representative over the legality of substituting a municipal ownership and a franchise ordinance on the same ballot still is in session with no progress being reported.

FIRE LOSS $100,000
CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 21.—The destruction of the E. A. Kinsey Company, dealers in manufacturers' railway and conductors' supplies at 321-33 West Fourth street was damaged by fire today to the estimated extent of $100,000.

BRITISH-FRENCH PACT
PARIS, Nov. 21.—Stephen Pichon, French foreign minister, and Sir Eyre Crowe, assistant under secretary for foreign affairs of Great Britain, last night exchanged ratifications of the treaty guaranteeing British aid to France, if, without provocation she is attacked by Germany.

TREATY OPPONENTS PLAN TO DECLARE WAR AT AN END WHEN CONGRESS MEETS NEXT MONTH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Early action on the resolution declaring the state of war with Germany to be at an end was promised by Republican leaders of the Senate and House.

It is the purpose of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, Republican leader, to bring the resolution to a vote in the senate in the opening days of the next session, which begins Monday December 1.

It is believed that a majority in both Houses, as there is strong sentiment in favor of ending the war without awaiting another six months of debate in the treaty.

Before the resolution is reported to the Senate by the Foreign Relations Committee, however, it will be changed from a concurrent to a joint resolution, so that it passed it will require the signature of the President before becoming effective.

Initial Motion Different
When first proposed the resolution was drafted as a concurrent resolution, that Congress might declare the war to be at an end without any action by the President.

The sentiment now prevailing, however, among Republican Senators is that it should be made a joint resolution, so that the President either may sign it or accept the responsibility for the continuance of the war by veto.

Here are certain of the reasons for early action on the treaty is no

COX FOR U. S. MINE CONTROL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.—Unless relief comes soon, Governor Cox believes that the coal mines of Ohio should be taken over and operated by the federal government.

This opinion he has expressed to Governor Harding of Iowa, in reply to the Iowa governor's suggestion that authorities in the big soft coal producing states take over and operate the mines. Governor Cox declares he believes the federal rather than the state government should take this action when the proper time arrives.

Governor Cox's telegram was in response to Governor Harding's telegram to the governors of the coal-producing states suggesting that state governments in the coal-producing states take control of the situation at once.

Impending coal shortages are being reported to the governor from the large industrial centers of the state.

Governor Cox today received the following telegram from Dr. H. A. Garfield, federal fuel administrator, at Washington:

"I have today telegraphed Governor Harding of Iowa as follows: 'Your messages of November 19 and 20 received. I appreciate the gravity of the Iowa situation. The road administration advises me that all Iowa requests have been handled in accordance with preference and records last night showed no domestic or public utility needs unfilled, though demands deemed essential have been refused. I suggest close co-operation with regional coal committees and immediate reference to them of all fuel emergencies. Every effort is being made to protect the situation by preferential movement of coal from eastern points.'

CAR SHORTAGE
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.—Complaints of car shortage in the Hazard coal field in Kentucky which supplies Columbus and Cleveland were made today to Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, and fuel administrator Garfield by B. F. Nigh, secretary of the Michigan-Ohio-Indiana Coal Association.

In his report to the fuel and railroad heads Mr. Nigh asserted that while the mines in the Hazard field were ready to load 500 cars of coal the Louisville and Nashville railroad supplied only 150 cars. The railroad officials claimed their terminals were congested, according to Mr. Nigh.

MINES REOPEN
DENVER, Colo., Nov. 21.—George C. Johnson, district president, United Mine Workers of America, early this morning announced that the strike of the bituminous coal miners in Colorado which had been ordered for Friday midnight, had been called off in accordance with the injunction issued late last night by District Judge Clarence J. Morely of Denver.

Villa Officer Faces Trial By Court Martial

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 21.—General Felipe Angeles, chief lieutenant of Francisco Villa, and famous artillery expert, captured last Wednesday by Mexican federal forces, faced trial by court-martial today in Chihuahua City. The trial is considered by the Mexican authorities as the most important held in that country during a decade of revolution and banditry. Reports in circulation along the border today were to the effect that General Angeles would be accused of rebellion against his government and that a death penalty would be asked.

Y. W. CAMPAIGN IS "OVER THE TOP"

Nearly $300 More Than Amount Anticipated Is Received.

Nearly $300 more than the desired goal of $20,000 was reported by the workers in the Y. W. C. A. budget campaign, which was closed at the noonday luncheon today at Trinity church. The campaign was formally opened on Tuesday night, but the actual soliciting did not commence until Wednesday morning. Ten teams, consisting of from eight to ten members each, assisted in the campaign, which was a complete success.

Loud cheering was heard when the auditing committee reported, the campaign far "over the top." The women who have been working zealously for the past several days then felt that their efforts were amply rewarded. Rev. Walter D. Cole addressed the workers today. The amount reported in today was $8,289, making a total with yesterday and Wednesday totals of $20,261.

To Meet Tuesday Night

Now that the budget is an assured thing, the officers of the Y. W. C. A. recreational center have announced that a special meeting will be held on next Tuesday evening at the Y. W. rooms, Morris Arcade, for the purpose of organizing into a permanent Young Women's Christian Association. They have been working towards this goal since July, 1917, when the Girls Social Service Club, with a membership of about 20 was first started in the Metropolitan building.

The membership as well as the work grew steadily, until last spring they were forced to seek larger quarters and leased the present rooms in Morris Arcade, after first making extensive improvements. During this time the fact that they were hoping to organize into a regular Y. W. C. A., was not lost sight of, and the club instead of being known as the Social Service was changed to the Y. W. C. A., recreational center. This center was helped financially by the national Y. W. C. A., board, even though it had formed no permanent organization.

LEGIONS WILL HOLD MID-WINTER JUBILEE

Preliminary arrangements were made at the regular semi-monthly meeting of Paul Gallagher post, Allen county chapter, of the American Legion held at Memorial Hall Thursday evening, for a banquet and jubilee to be held in the early part of December for the benefit of every ex-service man in Allen county. A committee of six was appointed to confer with the chairman of the Allen County War Mothers Association in the furtherance of this program. A prominent speaker is to be obtained for this jubilee and officials of the local post hope to make it one of the big events of the season.

The membership of Paul Gallagher post is much smaller at present than other posts in cities of similar population, an official stated Friday, and it is hoped to get the ex-service men together at this jubilee and create an interest in the work of the organization which will cause its membership to be increased as it should be.

All ex-service men are invited to be present at each meeting of the organization, which is held the first and third Thursdays of each month.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is sign you have been eating too much Meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, watery scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. These famous salts are made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot hurt you and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink.

Nimrods Will do Well to Abide by These Suggestions

Numerous complaints have been received by county officials from farmers who declare hunters are trespassing farms which are closed to hunting and other land owners in Allen county who allow hunting on their property complain that the hunters are "imposing upon good nature," and overriding their rights. As far as can be ascertained by officials, Allen county hunters are complying with the laws as regarding the slaying of song birds, and the limited number of pheasants and rabbits allowed each hunter per day. However, below is a list of "Don'ts" for the Allen county hunter, and if he abides by them he will not go far wrong:

- DON'T—Ignore the farmers' and land owners' rights. He will invite you back if you show him some consideration.
- DON'T—Neglect to secure permission of the land owner or farmer before you begin hunting on his property.
- DON'T—Break down fences, leave gates open, or shoot so as to scare his stock.
- DON'T—Show you are careless or inconsiderate of your companion's life by climbing the fence with your gun cocked.
- DON'T—Forget to carry along your hunting license. Pin it to the pocket.

ing coat or vest with a safety pin.

- DON'T—Resist a Deputy or "cuss" around if he stops you to see if you have a license or a ferret.
- DON'T—Shoot quail. They are on the song bird list and you'll feel like a sneaking cur instead of a gentleman if you kill Bob White.
- DON'T—Kill rabbits or pheasants beyond the limit of 10 rabbits or three cock pheasants a day if you are a real sportsman you'll obey the law.
- DON'T—Be an outlaw or a "roughneck" while in the field. Be a gentleman there as well as in your home.

MASSONS HONOR PAST MASTER GUS KALB

One of the largest gatherings in the history of Masonry for this city assembled in the lodge rooms yesterday night to honor Pastmaster Gus Kalb, who leaves for California in the very near future where he will make his home. Nearly 200 and sons were on hand to present their farewells to Mr. Kalb.

Clifton S. Carl, master of Lima lodge, No. 585, presided over the forenoon which were held in open session. There were over a score of past masters present, and of this number, Henry Seabers, Morris Harper, E. A. Dean, Emmett Everhart, C. E. Kimball, A. D. Sutton, the son of Dill and D. J. Cable delivered short addresses, lauding Mr. Kalb.

Past Master Frank M. Frey, made a trip here from Toledo in order to be present at the ceremony.

Probably the most noted celebrity of the local Masonic circles present last night was D. J. Cable, past master of both Lima blue lodges, and who was worshipful master at the time Mr. Kalb was raised.

Don Johns, prominent vocalist of this city, was in charge of the song service, and the Curtis orchestra rendered popular selections while the gathering was at dinner.

AMUSEMENTS

Faurot-Shirley Mason-Paramount Misses missed fire with "The Final Close-Up" now at the Faurot. As a matter of fact it seems to miss the mark. Comedy falls rather flat, and the story is more fully intended to be humorous than to get even a snicker and the absurd situation are far from convincing. To make a long story short, it is just another motion picture considerably below that usual standard of Paramount releases.

Shirley Mason, struggles along with a role that contains nothing for her. It is much to her credit that she manages to get a laugh once in a while. Francis McDonald handles the role well while Betty Houston is satisfactory in the society girl. Others in the cast include James Gordon, Eugene Purr and Mary Warren.

"The Final Close-Up" has thus far received a mixed review. It is a comedy, and a popular star. Otherwise it falls down and the story will do so. Cause Shirley Mason is in the stellar role.

The other picture on the program is fully up to the Faurot's standard. Copies of the film are as witty and timely as usual in the Post Nature picture, "A Song of the Sea".

of the most exquisite scenic pictures. Faurot has ever shown. It is a setting from William Gullen Bryant's poem the verse furnishing the titles. Last times today.

Faurot-Howe's Travel Festival—Lyman H. Howe has secured a series of delightful motion picture shorts of the homes and haunts of a number of the popular motion picture stars for his newest Travel Festival, which comes to the Faurot on Saturday afternoon and night, upon its silver jubilee tour.

How would you like to call upon Mary Pickford or Douglas Fairbanks? Of course, that is impossible, but Mr. Howe's Travel Festival will take you right into their homes. You will see Mary Miles Minter discussing her newest photograph with her director; Bill Hart visiting Broadway and incidentally holding up traffic; Edith Storey roughing it at her summer home at Northport, L. I.; Douglas Fairbanks indulging in off the screen acrobatics and his million dollar smile; Dustin Farnum exercising his speed boat; Geraldine Farrar listening to herself upon the victrola; Helma Holmes indulging in a little railway smashup and Mary Pickford in her palatial Hollywood, Cal. residence.

His cameramen will take you to Camp Wolohla for girls on Lake Superior in the Maine wilds, where you will see some startling swimming and diving upon an exciting tarpon fishing expedition in the Gulf of Mexico; to the Bethlehem Steel Works, the hub of the vast steel industry, upon a land-car ride down the Andes Mountains in Peru, on a camera hike over the tips of the snow-capped Canadian Rockies, and to the picturesque Magdalena Gardens near historic Charleston, S. C. Mr. Howe's staff of comic artists have created several cockingly funny animated cartoon comedies for the silver jubilee program. Mr. Howe by the way, was the pioneer maker of comedy trick films and animated comedies in America.

Orpheum—The matinee at the Orpheum theatre tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, as usual each Saturday, will be especially for the ladies and the children and the bargain prices of admission will prevail. Everything will be in honor of the youngsters who have attended school all week and whose parents permit them this big treat of relaxation and a genuine good time. "All work and no play make Willie a dull boy" is the way Lima parents look at things and that's why the young folks pack the Orpheum every Saturday afternoon for a clean, wholesome time of thorough enjoyment.

The headliners are Zeno, Dunbar and Jordan and they offer the only act of its kind ever brought to Lima. They are a scream of fun in one of vaudeville's greatest novelties.

Mason and Austin are operators of "The Sunshine Special," to "Laughter-land." The Stewart Sisters are raving little beauties, who offer harmony singing in manner which is entirely entrancing.

Ted and Corrine Breton present an uproariously funny comedy musical novelty. A delightful little skit, which fairly bubbles over with youth and enthusiasm, and which must be seen to be appreciated, is presented by Howard and Scott, a talented young woman and a clever young man.

Lyric—"Daddy Long Legs," in which Mary Pickford has the most appealing role of her career, and which will be presented at the Lyric is one of the most celebrated stories of the past decade.

The part of Judy Abbott, the orphan girl is one exactly suited to Mary Pickford. For a long time Miss Pickford has been anticipating the part, for it was inevitable that she should play it once the theatrical producers were willing to turn over film rights. There Miss Pickford purchased recently for $10,000.

Rialto—A most pretentious photoplay production comes to the Rialto theatre today, it being none other than a picture of Bret Harte's famous book "The Outcasts of Poker Flat." Harry Carey plays the important part of John Oakhurst, the pictureque character in Harte's book, and is said to surpass his own great achievements in "Roped," "Riders of Vengeance," "The Bent," "Three Mounted Men," and "A Fight for Love." A large and excellent cast is seen in support of the star Gloria Hope, the beautiful little leading woman, is seen as Sophy, Cullen Landis, is cast as Tommy, J. Farrell McDonald as Uncle Billy, Virginia Chester, the statuesque beauty, as The Duchess; Louise Lester as Mother Shipton and Charles Hill Mall.

Regent—Madge Kennedy finds a role dear to her heart in her latest Goldwyn release. The central situation finds her the fun-loving wife of a titled Englishman surrounded on one hand by her former associates of the music hall, and on the other by her husband's friends, and herself restrained by the masterly hand of one of her uncles, the head butler of Bantock Hall, "Strictly Confidential" will be shown at the Regent theater, beginning today.

NEW HEALTH CODE IS BEING SEVERELY CRITICISED BY MANY

Donahey Says Bill Will Cost
State Over Million Dollars a Year.

WRITES TO AUDITORS

Approximately $10,000 Will Be Added To Lima's Yearly Expense.

The new Hughes health code, provided for a re-organization of Ohio's public health system, effective January 1, is severely criticized in a communication which auditor A. V. Donahey Thursday addressed to all county auditors. This is said to be the beginning of a movement to have the law repealed or declared unconstitutional. Without going into details this act provides for officers, employees, nurses inspectors, hospitals, clinics, examinations, treatments, medical services without limit.

Based upon information gathered from 73 of the 88 counties, and estimates for the other 15 counties Donahey says, the act will impose an added burden of $1,078,236.50 on the already overburdened taxing districts. Donahey estimates the operations of the law if requests of the districts boards of health are allowed, will cost $1,357,636.59, as compared with a cost of $279,400 for 1919 under the old law.

Will Break Township.
Donahey in his letter states that hundreds of townships in Ohio will be left without a single cent, and municipalities will find it difficult if not impossible to meet these new demands upon their limited revenues.

Donahey also declares that unless the legislature, when it returns to Columbus in December, provides the revenues to meet the requirements under this act and places proper safeguards in the law, he will withhold payment of the state's appropriation for the purposes of carrying out the act until the supreme court of Ohio determines whether the act constitutes a violation of Article XX, Sections 1 and 2, of the constitution. Donahey declares the method employed in securing revenues is practically a poll tax which has been held unconstitutional in Ohio.

The Public Assault.
This is the first public assault on the Hughes act. It was passed by the legislature by a large vote. It provides for a complete re-organization of the health system, the employment of full time health officers in every city and county, also providing for nurses, inspectors hospitals and clinics.

Donahey in his statement alleges that 80 per cent of the total requests under the law are for salaries and traveling expenses.
"I am not opposed to the principle of safeguarding the public health," says Auditor Donahey, "but it must be so done that the remedy will not be a greater evil than the original system sought to be cured."

Affects Allen County.
The law as it stands now, according to city officials, will cost Lima and Allen county approximately $10,000, as a health officer will receive a salary of about $4,000 per year, and nurses will be paid at least $1,500. Besides these salaries they cite, other persons need be employed in the maintenance of the office. If the new law is not repealed, officials say, an effort will be made to consolidate the city and county health boards thus cutting down the expense several thousand dollars.

Correct Apparel for Women and Misses

A Great Sale of Suits at $33.75

Tailored, semi-tailored and fur-trimmed suits, exclusive models that are distinctly individual and will appeal strongly to the woman who appreciates excellent tailoring, finely finished seams and other superior points of styling and workmanship so characteristic of high Gregg standards. The materials are fine tricotine, wool velours, silvertones, tinseltones, Velour de Laine, Duvet Superior and many others equally as attractive. The colors include every new and desirable shade for winter wear.

The values are as stated up to $65. This means that these suits actually sold in our regular stock as high as $65 and as Gregg prices are invariably $5 to $10 lower than other high-grade stores, they will compare favorably with suits offered elsewhere as high as $75.

New exclusive models that have just come in which were intended to retail at a great deal more, will be included in this group Saturday at $33.75.

The Sale of Fine Coats $19.75, $25, $33.75

These splendid coats are expressive of the smartest modes of the season. Fur trimmed coats and distinctively tailored coats that combine warmth, beauty and ultra-smart style. The coats at $19.75 formerly sold as high as $29.50; the coats at $25 sold up to $35; and the coats at $33.75 sold in our regular stock as high as $59.50. So no matter which one of these prices the coat you select is you will be getting a garment exclusive in style, enduring in wear at a price that is below its actual worth.

The materials are Velour, Silvertone, Sparkle, Poire and Kervey Cloth; the colors are navy, taupe, burgundy, brown, green and grey. Some are lined in fancy silks, others are lined either half or full with durable "Sal Satin."

SOCIAL AND LITERARY CLUB

Mrs. Clarence John, of West Elm street, welcomed the members of the Social and Literary Club to her home Thursday afternoon. A splendid and appreciated donation of pillow cases, sheets, and other bedding was sent to the club by Mrs. John. Mrs. Russell Morgan, of Elida, Mrs. Arnold Jones and Mrs. J. W. Staub were guests. In the contest arranged for the amusement of the guests, Mrs. Frank Cheney won the club prize and Mrs. Russell Morgan, the guest prize.

Mrs. John served delicious refreshments assisted by Mrs. John Vogeleasing and Mrs. J. W. Staub. In two weeks Mrs. E. A. Hanner will entertain the club members at her home on West North street.

DELTA ALPHA CLASS
The Delta Alpha Class of the South Side Church of Christ will be entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Lego, of South Macdonel street.

SOCIETY
Mrs. M. L. Haffert, of South Eliza street, is entertaining as her house guests, Mrs. Koburn and daughter, Maud, of Birmingham, Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Klab and Mrs. Bertha Jordan, who are leaving Lima to make their future home in California, are leaving Lima Sunday, November 20th.

The Workers Club of the Market Street Presbyterian church will serve a good hot supper Saturday evening in the basement of the church. Everybody welcomed.

ST. RITA'S GUILD
St. Rose auditorium was in holiday dress, Thursday afternoon for the card party with which St. Rita's Guild entertained about fifty women. Euchre was played, with Mrs. McPherson holding high score and being presented with a pretty gift. Tea was served.

In the evening, the Guild again entertained with a card party and dance. Mrs. Mathew McNamara winning the ladies' prize and James Henry, the gentlemen's. Dancing ensued for the remainder of the evening, music being furnished by the Ragpipers. Refreshments were served. There were about 200 in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, of Louisville, Kentucky, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, of West Elm street, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Eddy, of West Market street, left Thursday for Marshall, Kentucky, for a few days.

CLUB CALENDAR

TONIGHT

Cafeteria Fish Supper, First Division, Ladies Aid Society, Epworth M. E. Church.
Choir Practice, Christ Episcopal Church, 8 o'clock.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

In harmony with all the congregations of the United Lutheran Church in America, the Bethany Lutheran Church will unite in the great simultaneous Every Member Canvass during the week November 23rd to 30th. H. A. Stonacker, captain of the visiting teams.

DINNER

The visiting Nurse Association will give a farewell dinner, Sunday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Klab and Mrs. Bertha Jordan, at the Normal Hotel. It will be a hard some affair.

MACCABEES

Lima Review No. 43 and Allen Review No. 197, Woman's Benefit Association of Macabees, left Lima at noon Friday for telford, where they attended the rally meeting of the Fifteenth District.

A splendid program will be included in the day's proceedings. The principal speaker was, Mrs. Nellie C. V. Hoppert, of Akron, great commander of the Woman's Benefit Association Friday evening there will be an open meeting, when the hostesses, the Delphos Review, will have charge. Mrs. Nellie M. Sullivan, local officer is district deputy.

DANCING PARTY

The Gram-Bernstein Girl's Club entertained charmingly with a dancing party at the Lane Dancing Academy Thursday evening. A delightful program of dance numbers was played, and punch was served throughout the evening. About twenty-five couples were present to enjoy the pleasurable event, which marked an epoch in social times of the club.

CHOIR TO MEET

The choir of Christ Episcopal church will meet at the parish house Friday evening. The first meeting of the choir was held last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forster Robinson, of South Jameson avenue, and at this meeting there was a goodly attendance. It is hoped that by the time the new church is finished, the choir will be at its best, so that the early practices are most beneficial.

NEW CLUB

Wednesday evening at the Club and Recreation Center of the Y. W. C. A., a new industrial club was organized with the following officers, president—Miss Lela Pickering, vice president—Miss Flora Mercer, secretary—Miss Naomi Westbay, treasurer—Miss Ruth Elliott.

It was decided to call this club the "Toujours prete" using the colors of wateria and green as club colors.

The following names represent the charter members of this club: Flora Mercer, Gertrude Glenn, Lela Pickering, Naomi Westbay, Lela Pickering, Mary Meyers, Daisy Loomis, Clara Loomis, Goldie Lawson, Ho Hardin, Marie Chapman, Nell Shook, Arminia Markley, Mildred Elliott, Ruth Elliott, Cleo Sowers, Linnie Hopkins, Neola Styre, Sara Weisman, Ruth Long, Alice Morse.

After a most delightful supper in which everyone had a share both in the preparation and the participation, the purpose and program of the club was discussed. Probably an industrial program will be studied this winter.

HAPPY-GO-LUCKY CLUB

Miss Nina Rublen, of North Elizabeth street, welcomed the members of the Happy-Go-Lucky club, to her home Thursday evening for their regular semi-monthly meeting. Miss Rublen's decorations were very clever, the Thanksgiving idea being used, turkeys adorning the table, while brilliant red satin ribbons were used effectively in offsetting the somber greenness of the turkeys plumage. Thanksgiving decorations were used on the supper table, following the meeting.

There was a contest, in which Mrs. Don Belford won the prize Mrs. Olsen Morris, of Elida will entertain the club in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Roland Clark, of Madison avenue.

ALTRUIAN CLUB

The Altrurian Club will have its next meeting the first Friday after Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Jacob Piper, of West Market street, instead of Mrs. X. Wells.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. W. W. Watkins, of East Euclid street, was the recipient of much attention, Thursday evening when a group of her friends gathered at her home, to remind her of her birthday anniversary. The surprise was conducted in a very pleasing manner, and Mrs. Watkins was unaware of a party until she lighted the lamps in her parlor, where the guests were grouped. Music and games, furnished the chief amusement of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served to the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. Minor Croxley, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ashton, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Croushorn, and daughter Donna Bell; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Croxley, Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Ashton, and Helen, and Pauline; Mrs. Rita Riley, and son, William; Mr. and Mrs. Mary Urquhart; Mrs. Mary Keller, Mrs. Gault, Mr. Wooddale and Mr. and Mrs. Watkins.

DINNER

Mrs. James Holmes, of Home acres, entertained at a handsomely appointed dinner, Thursday, at twelve o'clock, guests being neighbors, mostly members of the Home acres Club. Mrs. Holmes treated her guests to a chicken dinner, that worthy fowl surrounded by all its accessories. Mrs. Holmes was assisted by Mrs. Dora Holmes and Mrs. H. F. John during the serving of dinner.

Those present were Mrs. Frank Maran, Mrs. Dora Holmes, Mrs. James Meeker, Mrs. Alvin Feltz, and daughter, Leona; Mrs. Elsie Tressel, Mr. Oliver Ernest, Mrs. Lee Polson, Mrs. Mary Carr, Mrs. William Hilly, Mrs. Ed Nelson, and Mrs. Ed. Holman.

George S. Howe, of Burlington, Vermont, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. McCabe Howe of South Jameson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Maurer and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bogart, have just returned from a very pleasant visit in Willard, Ohio, with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maurer.

Floyd Matton, of South West street, will spend the week-end with his parents in Mansfield.

Miss Jane Graves, of Bloomington, Illinois, is a guest at the A. C. Eddy home, on West Market street, for the week-end.

James M. Glover, of North Charles street, left Thursday for Chicago, where he has accepted a position. Mrs. Glover will follow him within the month.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Leeds, of Washington, D. C., are the guests of relatives and friends here.

Mrs. G. B. Garner, has returned to her home in Toledo, after visiting for several weeks with relatives and friends in Lima.

Condensed Classic Series

The Lima Times' Fascinating Fiction Feature

TODAY—"The Scarlet Letter," by Hawthorne.

TOMORROW—"The Mysteries of Paris," by Eugene Sue.

HAWTHORNE

II.

After a residence of about four years at Concord, Hawthorne moved again to Salem, where he had been appointed as surveyor of the custom house at that port. He filled the position until a change of administration led to his retirement. He seems to have written little during his official term; but, having some leisure, he read much and pondered over subjects for future stories.

While at the custom house he found, among some old papers, a large letter "A" embroidered on red cloth, and speculating upon the origin and history of the letter, his imagination was so stirred, that upon his retirement from office he wrote "The Scarlet Letter."

Hawthorne was for years the most obscure of American writers, though he gradually acquired many quiet admirers. His first recognition came from England, where his genius was discovered by Henry F. Chorley, one of the editors of the "Athenaeum." But the powerful romance of "The Scarlet Letter" set at rest at once any doubt there may have been as to the genius of Nathaniel Hawthorne.

His shorter stories are remarkable for their originality. But in some of the longer stories he showed how deeply he pondered the great problems of life, in depicting the characters which move through his works.

He inherited the gravity of his Puritan ancestors, and was said to be "a great anatomist of the human heart."

THE SCARLET LETTER

By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE

(Condensation by George S. Barton, Winchester, Mass.)

One summer morning over two centuries ago the grass plot before the jail in Prison Lane was occupied by many of the inhabitants of Boston. The door opened and the town beadle appeared followed by a young woman carrying a baby about three months old. On the breast of her gown, in red cloth, appeared the letter A, and it was that scarlet letter which drew all eyes towards her.

The place appointed for her punishment was not far from the prison door, and in spite of the agony of her heart, Hester Prynne passed with almost a serene deportment to the scaffold where the pillory was set up, and under the weight of a thousand unrelenting eyes the unhappy prisoner sustained herself as best a woman might.

A small, intelligent appearing man, on the outskirts of the crowd attracted Hester's attention, and he in his turn eyed her till, seeing that she seemed to recognize him, he laid his finger on his lips.

Then, speaking to a townsman, he said, "I pray you, good sir who is this woman, and wherefore is she here set up to public shame?"

"You must needs be a stranger, friend," said the townsman "else you would have heard of Mistress Hester Pyrene. She bath raised a great scandal in godly Master Dimmesdale's church. The penalty thereof is death, but the magistracy, in their mercy, have doomed her to stand a space of three hours on the platform of the pillory, and for the remainder of her life to wear a mark of shame in her bosom."

"A wise sentence!" remarked the stranger. "It irks me, nevertheless, that the partner of her iniquity should not at least stand by her side. But he will be known—he will be known!"

The Rev Mr Dimmesdale, a young minister of high native gifts, who had already wide prominence in his profession, was urged to exhort Hester to repentance and confession. Addressing her, he advised that she name her fellow sinner even if he had to step from a high position to stand beside her, for it was better so than to hide a guilty heart through life.

Hester shook her head, keeping her place upon the pedestal of shame with an air of weary indifference.

That night her child writhed in convulsions, and a physician, Mr. Roger Chillingworth none other than the stranger Hester had noticed in the crowd, was called. Having eased the baby's pain he turned and said: "Hester, I ask not wherefore thou hast fallen into the pit. It was my folly and thy weakness. What had I—a man of thought—to do with youth and beauty like thine. I might have known that in my long absence this would happen."

"I have greatly wronged thee," murmured Hester.

"We have wronged each other," he answered. "But I shall seek this man whose name thou wilt not reveal, and sooner or later he must be mine. I shall contrive nothing against his life. Let him live. One thing, thou that wast my wife, I ask thee, thou hast kept his name secret. Keep likewise, mine. Let thy husband be to the world as one already dead, and breathe not the secret, above all to the man thou wottest of."

"I will keep thy secret, as I have his."

Freed from prison Hester did not flee, but established herself in a small cottage just outside the town, incurring no risk of want for she possessed the art of needlework which provided food for herself and child. She had named the little one "Pearl," as being of great price, and little Pearl grew up a lovely child. People wished to take her away and the matter was discussed in the mother's presence by Governor Bellingham and his guests—Rev. John Wilson, Rev. Mr. Dimmesdale, and Dr. Chillingworth.

"God gave me the child!" cried Hester and turning to the young clergyman, Mr. Dimmesdale, she exclaimed: "Speak thou for me. Thou wast my pastor. Thou knowest what is in my heart and what are a mother's rights, and how much the stronger they are when that mother has but her child and the scarlet letter! I will not loose the child! Look to it!"

"There is truth in what she says," began the minister. "There is a quality of awful sacredness between this mother and this child. It is good for this poor sinful woman that she hath an infant confined to her care—to be trained by her to righteousness. Let us leave them as providence hath seen fit to place them."

"You speak, my friend, with a strange earnestness," said Roger Chillingworth, smiling at him. "He hath adduced such arguments

PUMPS FOR Party Wear

For party wear we are showing some very exquisite pumps of Patent Kid, Dull Kid, Silver and White Satin. They have a square throat with graceful long receding toes, very dainty high heels, perfect fitting in the arch and instep—they will not gap around the sides. They are most appropriate worn plain or with dainty buckles or ornaments.

that we will even leave the matter as it now stands," said the governor. The affair being so satisfactorily concluded, Hester and Pearl departed.

Reverend Mr Dimmesdale, a health failing he consulted Dr. Chillingworth. Taking him as a patient, the doctor decided to know the man's innermost nature before trying to heal him. Arrangements were made for the two men to lodge together so that he might be constantly under the doctor's observation.

As Doctor Chillingworth proceeded with his investigation, begun as he imagined with the integrity of a judge desirous only of truth, a terrible fascination seized him and insisted that he do its bidding. He now dug into the poor clergyman's heart, like a miner seeking gold, and Mr Dimmesdale grew to look at him with an unaccountable horror.

Often Mr Dimmesdale tried to speak the truth of his past from the pulpit but had cheated himself by confessing the sinfulness in general terms. Once, indulging in the mockery of repentance, he mounted the scaffold where Hester had stood. There was no danger of discovery for everyone was asleep. Even so he was surprised by Hester and Pearl, returning from a death bed in the town, and presently by Roger Chillingworth.

"Who is that man?" gasped Mr. Dimmesdale, in terror. "I shiver at him, Hester. Canst thou do nothing for me? I have a nameless horror of the man."

Remembering her promise, Hester was silent.

Worthy sir," said the doctor advancing to the platform, "pious Master Dimmesdale! Can this be you? Come, good sir, I pray you, let me lead you home! You should study less, or these night-whimies will grow upon you."

Hester now resolved to do what she could for the victim whom she saw in her former husband's grip. One day she met the old doctor in the woods seeking herbs and implored him to be merciful, saying that she must now reveal the secret of their former relationship no matter what befell.

A week later Hester awaited the clergyman in the forest and told him about Roger Chillingworth and their relationship, bidding him hope for a new life beyond the sea in some rural village. "Thou shalt not go alone," she whispered.

Arthur Dimmesdale attained the proudest eminence a New England clergyman could reach. He had preached the election sermon on the holiday celebrating the election of a new governor.

Hester had taken berths to England and on the holiday the ship-master informed her that Roger Chillingworth had booked passage on the same vessel, adding nothing, she turned and stood by the pillory with more than $15,000,000 and will carry twelve 14-inch guns. Besides being electrically driven, the new warship will be electrically operated from her guns to her potato-peeling machine.

As the great craft slid into the water she was cheered by Governor William D. Stephens, of California, his daughter, Mrs. Randolph T. Zane, who sponsored the war vessel and thousands of spectators. While her berth was still warm the keel of a great companion, superdreadnought, the Montana, was laid within it.

Designed by master minds sharpened by urge of war, the California represents the ultimate in fighting fitness. Bulked alongside the fretwork of the ways where she had been pulled by tugs after the launching, the great vessel showed herself to be the embattled floating city that she is. All that has been learned in the war in regard to the fitting up of dreadnoughts has been put in this latest addition to the American navy.

The California's keel was laid October 16, 1916, but during the war the men who fabricated her turned their tools to the knocking together of other and smaller warcraft designed to fight the submarine. For two years not a rivet was driven but upon the signing of the armistice the great hull again swarmed, clanked and rang with life and it was heated, beaten and turned into the mighty craft that was launched today.

In commission, the California will have a crew of 1022 men and 58 officers, full complement. She has a length over all of 624 feet, a breadth of 96 feet and a depth of 47.2 feet. Her displacement at her mean draught of 30.5 feet would be 32,000 tons. She has an estimated speed of 21 knots an hour and a normal fuel capacity of 1,900 tons.

She was crying unrestrainedly. Not a sound came from the pretty trembling lips, but the great tears rolled down her cheeks.

The man seemed to enjoy the sight. A sarcastic smile played about his cruel mouth as he watched her; indeed, he looked as if he could never have smiled any other kind. The girl's beautiful eyes looked up pleadingly to his. His tongue seemed to lash her like a whip as a torrent of words came hissing from his mouth. Then she crumpled up and gave way entirely to her grief.

"Fine, fine," the man cried to her. "Two hundred feet of that is enough. Now we'll shoot a little of the next scene where you hang by one foot from a five story building."

Whereupon the lovely girl chuckled the onion overboard.—Judge.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

COSTUMES AND TAILLEURS SOUND TRIG AND TRIM NOTE IN FASHION'S REALM

Latest Skirt Models Emphasize Increased Width and Added Length—Interesting Designs for Women Who Select Clothes with Great Discrimination—

Black and White Effects Score Decisively in One-Piece Dresses—Blouse Frocks of Appealing Grace Developed with Marked Simplicity—

Smart Women Adhere to Their Fondness for Vest Effects—Superlative Lustre of Many Fabrics Makes Them Feast to the Eye.

By MAUDE HALL.
THERE is unprecedented activity in the world of dress. The shops which specialize in ready-made garments are experiencing the largest sales in their history, yet more women are making their own clothes than ever before. The cheapest of the ready-to-wear suits and costumes are beyond the dress limits of many women, so that their only recourse is to home dressmaking if they wish to follow the style.

This is a season without a prevailing mode, though simplicity is emphasized. The long blouse and the long tailored coat might be said to be greatly in evidence, but there are many short rippled jackets offered as a counter attraction. Paris sends word of the new skirts that are both wider and longer, and it is predicted that straight gathered skirts measuring three yards about the lower edge are being worn in the French capital. How this style will take, however, remains to be seen, unless the materials considered most desirable at present undergo a radical reduction in price. Serges at four dollars a yard and broadcloths and duvetyns at from five to eight dollars, put an effective curb upon one's admiration for any style requiring unnecessary material.

Scoring decisively just now are the blouse frocks in black and white checks and mixtures. Not only are they good looking, but they are sufficiently stylish to be worn on almost any occasion. A blouse that falls almost to the hem of the skirt, is trimmed at either side with large buttons of self-material and held in at the waist with a girdle of black satin. The round neck takes a circuitous route at the front, describing a V, and is finished with a band of satin. Tucked georgette fills in the tiny vest and the decoration of the neck is repeated in the flare sleeves.

The designers are making a strong point of combinations of materials, as there is little that is new in fabric neck edge as notched, with center backs even.

Close sleeve seams as notched, easing in any fullness between the notches at elbow. Leave extensions free. Turn extension under on slot perforations, lap folded edge to small "o" perforations and finish for closing, turn hem at lower edge of sleeves on small "o" perforations. Sew sleeve in armhole as notched with small "o" perforation at shoulder seam, easing in any fullness between notches or the fullness may be shrunk out. Hold the sleeve toward you when basting it in the armhole.

Fold belt through the center and stitch free edges together, matching notches. Arrange around the waist with upper edge along the upper edge of bodice, with center-backs even. Tack at under-arm seam. Bring small "o" perforation to folded edge of jacket front and tie at the side-front as illustrated.

Now, close right shoulder seam of vest and finish left side edges for closing. Turn hem at lower edge of small "o" perforations. Fold stay through the right center (lengthwise and stitch the free edges to gather matching notches. Sew to right side edge of vest matching the small "o" perforations at upper edge of stay and in vest. Finish left side edges for closing.

WORK ON ADDITION AT ELKS' HOME TO COMMENCE AT ONCE

Plans Were Laid At Meeting Thursday Evening and Committee Appointed.

NEW BANQUET HALL

Building To Be Enlarged And Improved at a Cost of About $100,000.

At an important meeting of members of the Elks lodge held Thursday night tentative plans for the erection of a handsome addition to their present home at the corner of North and Elizabeth streets were made. A building committee consisting of the three trustees: Serge Sealts, George E. Williams and C. A. Ackerman, with J. B. Kaufman, exalted ruler, and A. J. Christy, secretary, and two men to be named by the ruler, was appointed last night. They will confer immediately with architects, and after submitting their plans to the members at the next regular meeting, will be empowered to start the actual work.

At the present time, it is contemplated to use the 50 feet on Elizabeth at the rear of the home, and also to obtain 50 more feet from the Cadillac Company just east of the home, for the new addition. That will make the entire building with a frontage of 50 feet on North street 110 feet on Elizabeth street and a depth of about 100 feet back along the alley in the rear.

They will install a modern heating plant, bowling alleys and billiard room for the exclusive use of the members. Where the present rathskeller now is, will be the card room, and where the present dance hall is on the main floor, there will be a dining room where meals will be served daily. The kitchen will also be built on the main floor, over the present

Interest

Save five dollars each month for fifteen years and you will have nine hundred dollars.

But if you deposit that five dollars each month with The Allen County Savings & Loan Company it will amount to $1336.22. The difference of $436.22 is interest at the rate of five per cent compounded semi-annually as allowed on all savings accounts with this company.

Fifteen years seems a long while to look ahead but a very short time to look back.

Get the habit and it will be a pleasure to watch your account grow. Any amount from one dollar up will be received.

Savings Building, Corner Market and Elizabeth Streets.

posited bowling alleys. A dance floor or special banquet hall, twice the size of the present room, will be built in the new addition.

The rest of the building will conform with the new addition, and a decorating contract was awarded last night to Carl Holm, decorator. A roof garden will be built on the top. No estimate of the cost of the new building has been made, but it will probably be in the neighborhood of $100,000.

The Cadillac company still has a year and a half of their lease on their present location, and if they decide to hold the same location, it is probable that it will be leased to them again by the Elks, who bought the building, and who will for the present just use the rear of the Cadillac for their own purposes.

Football Fans Go To Columbus

Quite a large number of football enthusiasts of Lima will journey to Columbus Saturday to witness the annual gridiron classic between Ohio State and Illinois. Before Harley's men can claim championship honors they must vanquish the outfit from the Parag State, and Lima fans are pulling hard for the Buckeye boys.

People Are Still Wondering Why the Folks Go to TEE

FIRST
CHURCH
COME AND SEE

GET UP EARLY IF YOU WOULD VIEW ECLIPSE SATURDAY

It Will Be The First Annual Eclipse In Eleven Years.

TO BE VISIBLE HERE

Sun Will Be Obscured Except For Ring When Black Ball Appears.

Set your alarm early Saturday for there will be an unusual eclipse of the sun, beginning in Lima at about sunrise. The phenomenon is the first annual eclipse, visible in the United States since 1908 and it will be another 11 years before another is visible.

The path, or shadow, of the annular phase has the unusual width of 230 miles and the duration, which will be from eight to twelve minutes, is the greatest possible for an eclipse. Only the states of Louisiana and Texas, however, will witness the annular phase.

In Lima, the annular eclipse will be visible as a large partial eclipse. It is scheduled to begin at 6:32 a. m. It will be at its maximum at 7:46 a. m. and will end at 9:12 a. m. In Cleveland, the eclipse will start at 6:36, reach its maximum at 7:49 and end at 9:12. In Cincinnati it is scheduled to start before sunrise, reach its maximum at 7:44 and be over by 9:10 a. m.

Only Ring Visible. In an annular eclipse, the whole sun is obscured except a ring or annulus. It is caused, as is every solar eclipse, by the interposition of the moon between the earth and the sun. The moon appears as an intensely black ball moving across the disc of the sun.

Solar eclipses are not universal like those of the moon. They are not seen from all places that have the sun above their horizon at the time of the eclipse, which is the reason that though they are of more frequent occurrence than lunar eclipses, moon eclipses are more often seen and for that reason supposed to occur more frequently.

There are appearances accompanying an eclipse of the sun, such as will occur Saturday, which are very remarkable. The darkening of the sun, especially when it is not expected, usually fills a spectator with vague terror. Even when looked for, it strikes one with awe. The strangeness of the sudden darkness is impressive for it resembles neither the darkness of night, nor the gloom of twilight. The terrifying aspect of nature usually creates fear among animals. Stars and planets appear as during night, but with a strange, gloomy appearance.

To Be Widely Seen. The annular eclipse will be partially visible generally Saturday in the United States, Mexico, Central America, the northern two-thirds of South America, northwestern Africa, Great Britain, France and Spain. The annular phase begins at sunrise in western Texas, passes through that state and across the southwestern corner of Louisiana, thence across the Gulf of Mexico to the island of Cuba, through the Caribbean sea and sweeps with a wide curve over the Atlantic ocean and ends in the French Sudan in Africa, near Timbuctoo.

Saturday's eclipse will be the second solar eclipse of the year, an unusual occurrence. The first one occurred on May 29, but was invisible in the United States. It was visible as a partial eclipse in South America and Africa only.

A small lunar eclipse was visible in the United States Nov. 7, from about 4:58 p. m. to 6:30 p. m.

A. O. H. NOTICE

There will be a regular meeting of Division No. 1, A. O. H. Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. Full attendance requested as there will be several candidates to obligate and election of officers. Rec. Secretary.

"Gets-It" Peels Off Corns Painlessly

Off They Come Like Banana Skin 2 or 3 Drops, That's All.

There's a murderous, painful way to get rid of corns, and then there is the peaceful, glorious "peels-it-off" "Gets-It" way. After you have tried "Gets-It" you will say never again to all other methods. This is because "Gets-It" is the only corn-remover on earth that makes corns peel off just like a banana skin. Two or three drops will do the work, without fussing or trouble. You apply it in 2 or 3 seconds. It dries immediately. "Gets-It" does the rest, without bandages, plasters, blood-bringing knives or razors. Get rid of that corn-pain at once, so that you can work and play without corn torture. Be sure to use "Gets-It." It never fails. "Gets-It" the one sure, guaranteed money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. PACKING HOUSE BLAZE

Dayton, O., Nov. 21.—Loss of between $15,000 and $18,000 was sustained by fire at the Henry Focke's Sons Company Packing House on Springfield street early today. Firemen fought the flames for four hours. The interior was partially wrecked. Grease dripping from smoking meats caused an explosion, which knocked down several employees. The box room was soon on fire.

The Finest Furs Nature Produces

We know that our Furs are the finest obtainable, because they are Northern Furs. They came from the frozen Northlands, where nature provides the thickest, largest, silkiest pelts, because there it is coldest. Our squirrel fur, even that used as trimmings, comes from Siberia. Our mink is the finest, eastern mink; Hudson Seal comes from the Icelands. Yet our prices are lower than prices being paid daily for inferior qualities. Their pricings range from

HALT CALLED ON HUGHES HEALTH PLAN IN OHIO

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.—The new Hughes code providing for a re-organization of Ohio's public health system, effective January 1, was severely criticised in a communication addressed to all county auditors by State Auditor A. V. Donahey today. This, it was said, is the beginning of a movement to have the Hughes law repealed or declared unconstitutional.

Based upon information gathered from 73 of the 88 counties and estimates for the other 15, Donahey says the act would impose an added burden of $1,078,236.59 on the "already overburdened taxing districts." Donahey estimates in his letter that the operation of the law, if requests of the district boards of health are allowed, would cost $1,377,636.59, as compared with a cost of $279,490 for 1919 under the old law. This, says Donahey, is 46.3 cents per capita.

"Hundreds of townships in Ohio would be left without a single cent," says the state auditor's letter to county auditors, "and municipalities would find it difficult, if not impossible to meet these new demands."

TURKEYS RETURNED
DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 21.—Twenty thousand pounds of turkey and other fowls seized from Swift and Company by federal authorities here last September was ordered returned to the company by United States District Judge Tuttle today. The company agreed to sell the poultry at a profit not to exceed one cent a pound.

HER DAUGHTER WAS SAVED FROM OPERATION

Mrs. Wells of Petersburg Tells How.

Petersburg, Va.—"For two years my daughter suffered from a weakness and pains in her right side, at times she was so bad she could not do any work. For two years she was attended by the best physicians here, and both agreed that she would have to be operated on. I suggested Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and at first she refused to take it, but finally consented. From the very beginning it helped her, and now she is entirely well, and telling everybody how much good it has done her."—Mrs. W. D. Wells, 226 North Adams Street, Petersburg, Va.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Wells did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, headache, dragging down pain, inflammation or ulceration would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering. Back to Nature With Complexion

NEW YORK has declared war upon facial decoration—so far as the school children are concerned. Back to Nature with the complexion—that is what it amounts to. For the teachers are instructed to send home to have their faces washed all of the girls who appear at the schools adorned with paint or powder.

Not only the public schools, but many private schools have also issued the decree, and the authorities have ordered the policemen to be on the lookout for youthful maidens who have applied the brush or cosmetic. Of course, the authorities have nothing to do with the matron who uses paint; that is her business, and she is not to be interfered with. But the youngsters, the "youthful vampires," as some one has called them—and they are numerous in such cities as New York—they must get back to Nature with their complexions.

It isn't going to be as severe on the girls as they imagine, either. For the truth is, paint and powder add nothing to any girl's charms, if she be normal and healthy. Nature understands the delicate touches that much be given; she alone can give them. The smeary, exaggerated tints which the women add to their faces detract from them to a greater extent than they imagine. Whether it is the copper-hue of the Egyptian which some assume, or the faint pink of the rose, it is all the same, it is recognized as artificial as far as the eye can see it. But the trouble is, people do not tell the girls the truth. If every boy who calls upon a girl would tell her frankly what he thinks of her attempts to improve her complexion, as soon as he enters the room, instead of pretending that he doesn't recognize the artificiality of it, the girls would walk around the paint jar as they would a snake.

Vic Would Do, Alright

IN POLITICAL GOSSIP sent out from Columbus to several newspapers last week, Vic Donahey, present state auditor, was mentioned as being the choice of many for the Democratic nominee for governor next year.

The suggestion that Donahey lead the ticket will be met with considerable approval all over the state, for he has proven one of the most capable state officials Ohio ever had. He is one of the very few who went into the state building down at Columbus with the idea that after all the taxpayers of the state have some say and while he has proven decidedly unpopular with the officials who would spend Ohio's money like it was water and free as the air you breathe, the taxpayers who foot the bills haven't forgotten Donahey.

It is a little early to choose a candidate as yet, but the Times isn't at all displeased over the fact that some of the folks are discovering that Donahey would make a good governor. We've known it all the time.

OUR BED-TIME STORY

FOR TINY TIMES-DEMOCRAT FOLKS

Now let's see. Como was telling how the man had stopped him near the hotel to ask him to deliver the kidnappers' notes to Captain Brave when we had to end yesterday's story.

"When the man asked me if I was going to the hotel I looked quickly at him and when I saw what a mean looking person he was I was sure that he must be mixed up in the kidnapping of the children, so I decided to find out more about him," said Como.

"I told him I was going toward the hotel and he asked me to deliver the letter for him, giving me five dollars with it. I took the letter and the money and walked on as if I was going straight to the hotel with the letter. I looked back once in awhile until I saw that he had decided I was going to the hotel and then I turned around and began to follow him.

"I think I have found the house where Jack and Jane are being held."

When Como told the three that good news their sadness changed to happiness.

"I knew someone would find them somehow," Ladydear said.

"I haven't seen the children, though," said Como, "so please don't think I'm a hero until Jack and Jane are found."

"I followed the man down to the bay and along a narrow street for what seemed like a mile or two. Finally he stopped, looked all ways along the street and then went into a house. He would have seen me if I hadn't stepped behind a tree as he stopped to look around.

After he went into the house I crept up as close as I dared and listened.

I could hear many men talking excitedly, but I couldn't understand what they were saying, although they were talking Italian. I didn't try to learn anymore, though, for fear that I would undo everything I had done. I knew I would attract too much attention if I tried

Short Stories of the Buckeye State

GIDDINGS AND BERGER

A condition somewhat similar to that in which former Congressman Victor Berger of Milwaukee now finds himself, was once precipitated in the Ohio delegation. But the Ohio congressman in the case was not expelled; he had only been made the subject of a formal resolution of censure. As the immediate result of this however he tendered his resignation and returned to his district to report the matter.

The story was recently told in this column, but in connection with the Berger case, it is worth reviewing. The Ohio congressman referred to was Joshua R. Giddings, of Ashtabula county. In 1842 a slave ship sailing from a Virginia port with a cargo of slaves for New Orleans, was seized by the slaves at sea and sailed into the British port of Nassau, where under international laws they were free. But their owners sought to secure compensation for them through congress.

Giddings offered a resolution that slavery was in effect the deprivation of human beings of natural rights, that it existed only under the jurisdiction of the state permitting it, and that slaves when beyond that jurisdiction had a perfect right to resume the rights that had been wrongfully taken from them.

Of course the resolution was throttled and in its place another one censuring the Ohio congressman for offering it was adopted. His resignation followed and he returned to his home. That was in March 1842 and his constituents in a special election in April nominated and re-elected him.

Berger, ousted for resisting the government in its preparations for the recent war, has returned to his Wisconsin district to stand as the candidate of his party for re-election and it is said that he will probably be elected. The election is set for December 29 and the Socialists have already in mass convention made him their candidate. Interest now centers in the question whether congress will again, and for the same reasons oust him. It probably will. No question as to the right of Giddings to sit when he came back re-elected, was raised.

THOSE VERBAL RETRIEVERS!

Miss Greene had been invited to be a bridesmaid at quite a smart wedding, and spent much time in planning her new frock.

At last it was ready, and when she tried it on she asked Mrs. Jones from next door to come and see it.

"It's sweet, my dear," said the good lady admiringly. "And certainly you look a lady, whatever you are."

Miss Greene's face told her she had made a mistake, so she corrected herself hurriedly.

"No, I mean you are lady, whatever you look—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph

REV. O'FERRAL IS CAMPAIGN LEADER

Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrall has been appointed to direct a nationwide Episcopal church campaign which ends December 7 in Christ Church Parish, Lima.

This new method of church organization is interesting business men in and out of the Episcopal church membership.

"The projected campaign," said Rev. O'Ferrall, will inaugurate a new era in the American Episcopal church. The needs and resources of the church body have been surveyed and the nation-wide campaign is planned to unite all Episcopal churches in joint activities to help each other.

DYSPEPSIA MAN'S GREATEST ENEMY

Is Most Prevalent of All Present-Day Diseases—Victims Are Whimsical and Melancholy and Suffer Great Mental Depression. Disease Can Be Cured by Proper Treatment

Explaining the record-breaking purchase of Tanlac by Hunter's Drug Store of Lima, and The Welding, Kinnin and Marvin Co., of Toledo, and the leading wholesale and retail druggists throughout the country, G. F. Willis, the international distributor of Tanlac, states that the hundreds of questions now being asked all over Lima make it imperative that some explanation be made to satisfy public interest.

Speaking of Tanlac, he said: "Thousands of the most prominent people—in fact, people representing all walks of life in the larger cities of the country where the celebrated medicine has been accomplishing such remarkable results are enthusiastic over Tanlac and are giving it their unqualified endorsement."

"In explanation of this, it should be stated that Tanlac is believed to be the first actually direct specific for catarrhal inflammation of the mucous membrane and the complications which follow."

"Catarrh of the stomach is one of the most frequent causes of dyspepsia and catarrhal inflammation of the nose and throat and leads to inevitable complications such as kidney and liver affections, rheumatism, etc."

"Show me a man whose eyes are inflamed, whose sense of smell and hearing is affected, and I will show you a man who is suffering from catarrh. Frequently the lungs become involved by the extension of the catarrhal inflammation or germs to the lung substance. Specialists concede that, but it has remained for Tanlac, the new formula, to provide the remedy, as has been so conclusively and convincingly proved by the hundreds of thousands who have been relieved by its use."

"Of all the distressing conditions that afflict humanity, catarrh of the stomach, or what is more commonly known as chronic dyspepsia, is probably the most prevalent. This most universal malady has baffled the medical profession for years, and the most skilled specialists have been unable to cope with it successfully."

"Hours might be consumed in describing the sufferings, mental and physical, of the sufferers of chronic dyspepsia and their failure heretofore to get relief. A morbid, unreal, whimsical and melancholy condition of the mind, aside from the nervousness and physical suffering, is the usual condition of the average dyspeptic, and the life seems scarcely worth the living."

"Dyspepsia or indigestion, as the case may be, is caused by the eating of too much food, or unsuitable food, which irritates the mucous membrane of the stomach and there is set up an acute or subacute gastric catarrhal condition which prevents the proper digestion of the food."

"This food is apt to ferment and decompose, and as a result the familiar distressing symptoms of dyspepsia may arise. In mild cases there is nothing more than an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, with a certain amount of depression, headache, loss of appetite, perhaps belching, or gas and occasional vomiting. There may be also accompanying intestinal symptoms, such as pains in the back, colic, etc. There may be only the familiar heartburn, due to the inflammation of the stomach from excessive gases of fermentation or putrefaction."

"In the most severe cases—those that last over a day or two—the symptoms enumerated may be much more intense. The distress may be marked and the general constitutional symptoms more evident. When this stage is reached the loss of appetite, the mental depression and the general uncomfortable feeling in the stomach are much more pronounced. This is particularly true of acute gastritis."

"It frequently occurs from continued errors in diet that this condition becomes chronic and the symptoms persist for an indefinite period; the appetite is very apt to be varied, although at times very good. Heartburn is frequent, it not constant, the stomach is painful, on pressure, the tongue is coated, there is a bad taste in the mouth and there are changes in the amount of salivary secretion."

"Most cases of dyspepsia can be cured if the diet is properly looked after and with the proper treatment. Proper eating and the proper amount of food are the most important features in the treatment. Most people eat too fast and eat too much."

"There is not a single portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of Tanlac, which begins its work by stimulating the digestive and assimilative organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the whole system. Next, it enables a weak, worn-out stomach to thoroughly digest the food, promoting products to be converted into blood, bone and muscle."

"Tanalac is now sold in Lima by Hunter's Drug Store."

MURDER CHARGE FILED
TIFFIN.—A second degree murder charge was filed against Joseph Vitale, held here for the alleged shooting and killing of Thomas

Chronos, and wounding his brother, Peter.

Coroner J. D. McConnell of Greenspring announced at the close of the inquest today that he would give out his verdict, Friday.

TRAPPERS FLOURISH AROUND ST. MARYS

ST. MARYS, Nov. 21.—That lots of people are trapping this fall is evidenced by the number of pelts which are being turned in to local buyers. Skunk pelts seem to outnumber the collection of coon, opossum and mink. The quality of the fur is of the best and they are bringing much higher prices this year than heretofore.

Aged seventy-six years, five months and fourteen days, Jacob Koenig, Sr., passed away at 8 o'clock a. m., Thursday, November 20, 1919. The fatality occurred at the Koenig homestead in Noble township north of the Ferguson schoolhouse. Apoplexy was the immediate cause. For at least two weeks Mr. Koenig lay in a precarious state of health. Chronic ailment was a factor in the final illness. The sad announcement here given causes little or no surprise, though this fact dulls but slightly the keen edged sorrow incident to the loss of this well-esteemed citizen.

Grading has started on a one-mile stretch of road improvement extending northward from the recently finished Fairview road to the Spencer-ville-Celina road, known as the "state road," in Salem township.

MACCABEE WOMEN MEET AT DELPHOS

DELPHOS, Nov. 21.—A big district meeting of the Woman's Benefit Association of the Macabees is being held in this city today, the local Review being hostesses to a number of visitors in the Lima District of the order. Over one hundred visitors are expected by the local ladies and a class of fourteen will be initiated.

A death rate somewhat heavier than normal has been recorded in Delphos so far this month. In the first half of the month there were ten deaths, which is fully thirty per cent higher than the average death rate for our city. Only one of these was due to communicable disease, this one being caused by tuberculosis. The general health conditions in Delphos are exceptionally good for this time of the year.

The funeral of Mrs. Harry Carpenter was held from the United Brethren church, at Elida, at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, the Rev. Mr. Biddle being in charge of the U. B. choir.

Woman to Woman.
When a woman has been very much benefited by a medicine she can hardly refrain from telling other women about it. Mrs. L. O. Seltz, Lima, Ohio writes "I have a very high opinion of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My mother had a severe bronchial cough for months. After taking numerous cough medicines without relief she was finally cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I take pleasure in recommending it."

DEPOCKETPICKER IS SENT TO PRISON

VAN WERT, Nov. 21—John McNeilles, one of the trio indicted for frisking the pockets of Constable S. M. Baxter, changed his plea from not guilty to guilty. He was sentenced to serve from one to five years in the Ohio penitentiary. Harry Baker, another member of the trio, whose trial was assigned for Friday, will not be brought up until the 25th instant. The postponement was taken in order that Prosecuting Attorney Walters might attend an important conference of prosecutors, in Columbus.

The charge against Frank Daring, accused of stealing a bicycle belonging to Ira Acheson, has been dismissed for the want of evidence. Daring, however, was removed to the Toledo workhouse to complete a sentence for taking money belonging to his daughter, having escaped while a prisoner at the prison.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected yesterday at the meeting of the 16th District of the Rebekah lodge as follows: President, Mrs. Clara Williams of Ohio City, vice president, Miss Rebecca Miller of Scott; secretary, Miss Daisy B. Downhour of Middle Point; treasurer, Mrs. Sower of Mendon. The meeting next year will be held in Ohio City.

Nora Glass has filed divorce proceedings in common pleas court against her husband Harvey Glass in which she alleges that he is of a sullen and pouty disposition, that he abandoned her and left her to care for herself although able to support her properly. O. W. Kerns is attorney for the plaintiff.

12-YEAR OLD BOY SHOT OUT HUNTING

CELINA, Nov. 21—Oscar, 12 year old son of Michael Weisman, of near Rockford, is a patient at Van Wert hospital, the result of a hunting accident occurring Tuesday in which he was shot in the face.

He was hunting for a rabbit with another lad and as he peered under a barn in search of the game, his chum fired a shot from the opposite side of the building. Five of the birdshot lodged in his face, one passing through his eye into the orbit bone. It is hoped to save the sight of his eye.

"JACK THE PEEPER" IS BUSY AT WAPAK

WAPAKONETA, Nov. 21—

"Jack the Peeper" is again making his rounds in Wapakoneta. A noise was heard on the roof at the Bert Blume home on East Anglin street, about 9 15 Wednesday night, and when an investigation was made it was found that someone was on the roof, peering into an upper window of the residence next door.

Water and Light Superintendent Harry Nagel states that late Wednesday with only a sufficient amount of coal on hand at the power house to operate the plant until Thursday evening, Mayor Klipfel, by telephone succeeded in inducing R. N. Begun, Federal manager of the B. and O. R. R. to release a car load of coal consigned to this city and on a B. and O. sidetrack, ready for unloading.

Louise Anspaugh filed suit for divorce from Ray Anspaugh, on the ground of extreme cruelty. Plaintiff asks for a temporary and permanent alimony and custody of their minor child. Plaintiff prays that defendant be enjoined from entering said home or removing any of the furniture or in any manner interfering with this plaintiff in the care of their child. An injunction was allowed by the court.

Very pleasing to the eyes of youngsters was the thin film of ice over the Auglaize river Thursday morning. It is not known how thick the ice was, but it probably is about two inches thick in some places. Boulders and other "investigatory" instruments were used by boys in determining its thickness, some of which did not break through.

BRIDGES FRENCH BRIDE FINDLAY, Nov. 21—Findlay's first French bride reached the city today as the wife of Earl Runyon who left Findlay more than two years ago with the Ohio National Guard.

Runyon was reported missing in action late in the war and his parents here did not hear from him until months after the war ended.

(By Arnold H. Prime)

Every day in the Lima Times' Campaign has been an opportunity to you. Every day until the end of the race is still greater opportunity. You do not have to make a field for a NEW and UNTRIED article. You are not under the disadvantage of asking anyone to "try" it—there are few people with whom you will come in contact who has not during the last six months seen the Times and appreciated its superiority. There is no reason why you should not be able to secure a hearing from anyone you approach on the proposition. All right then, you have the chance to tell them, your friends, about your paper. If you explain to any man or woman, no matter who they may be, that after December they will not be able to buy any Lima paper for less than $5 by carrier or for less than $2 by mail and that by subscribing with you, they will save from $1 to $4.50 per year, you should not have very much trouble in getting their subscription for a year or so any way.

CONTESTANTS: It is your work during the last week of this great campaign to make regular subscribers out of occasional readers. Show them the great saving in hard money, it may take a bit of talking, but you will be well repaid for your energy in showing this proposition to your friends. Work with every ounce of energy and brain tissue you possess for the next seven days. The results depend on work—nothing but HARD WORK, well planned, ambitious, steadfast work. There is no element of luck connected with the contest. The rewards are fixed in value and the rules of the contest are such as to safeguard your hard efforts. Remember that three prizes will go to each district, and the two automobiles will be given to the two high candidates in two of the districts. In this way two of the districts will receive four prizes and two districts three prizes, those not winning will be paid ten percent of all they turn in. Nothing could be more fair, and it simply remains for the "LIVE CANDIDATES" those who really have the ambition to WIN, to get busy and let absolutely nothing stop them from winning.

One Subscriber May Win
No one knows your standing, and there is no possible chance for anyone to find out your standing, or what you have turned in. No one but you will profit at the last hour. Don't lose sight or give up a single "Prospect" one subscription may mean the winning of the WILLIS KNIGHT Touring Car.

Do You Want An Automobile?
Do you want a high grade machine? Your chance is right before you, to win one absolutely free. You CAN win the TIMES' big prize with a little effort if you arrange your work systematically. You MUST have the BONUS VOTES offered below in order to win. This is the ONLY way to win. Pick out one of the HIGH FIGURES in the last vote offer advertised below, and work as you have never worked before. Don't let up a single day or hour. Get someone to take care of your regular duties, and devote every spare moment to the gathering of subscriptions. It is your duty to yourself, and if you finish the campaign like this, you will have the satisfaction of knowing you did your level best, and be satisfied with the result.

Your Last Chance to Secure the Winning Votes.

The last vote offer follows: It will last from Friday, November 14, to Saturday, November 29, at EIGHT O'CLOCK in the evening Go in and WIN. The offer is figured high, yet is appreciably smaller than that of last week or any former week. THIS is your LAST Chance, don't fail. It's up to YOU.

DOUBLE BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR

"Danderine" creates mass
of thick, gleamy waves

In a few moments you can transform your plain, dull, flat hair. You can have it abundant, soft, glossy and full of life. Just get at any drug or toilet counter a small bottle of "Danderine" for a few cents. Then moisten a soft cloth with the "Danderine" and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Instantly, yes, immediately, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will be a mass, so soft, lustrous and so easy to do up. All dust, dirt and excessive oils removed.

Let Danderine put more life, color, vigor and brightness in your hair. This stimulating tonic will freshen your scalp, check dandruff and falling hair and help your hair to grow long, thick, strong and beautiful.

NET HIS BLUFF
They were very fond of each other and had been engaged; but they had quarreled and were too proud to make it up. He called afterward at her house—to see her father on business. She was at the door. "Ah—Miss Blank, I believe" said he. "Is your father in?" "No, sir," she replied. "Father is not at present. Do you wish to see him personally?" "Yes," was the bluff response of the visitor, who felt that his former sweetheart was yielding—"I wanted to see him on very particular business—and he turned away haughtily. "I beg your pardon," she called after him as he reached the last step, but who shall I say called?"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.
